Round 1: Open House and Philanthropy

6:00-6:15 PM Meet with Recruitment Counselor
6:30-8:30 PM Events
8:30-8:45 PM Potential New Members Meet with Recruitment Counselors

What it's all about:

You will visit all three sororities this evening. Round 1 is broken into two parts; open house allows you your first glimpse into sorority life. This session provides you with a chance to ask questions and gain information about the different sororities. Also, this night is philanthropy night. You will be participating in small philanthropy projects and learning about each group's specific causes.

What to Wear:

Attire for Round 1 is casual. Jeans paired with a nice shirt is appropriate.

Potential New Members Meet with Recruitment

What it's all about:

During these events, the women will show off their talents in skits and spend more time getting to know you. This is your time to ask other questions about sorority life. The sisters will help in answering questions by sharing personal experiences. You should begin thinking about where you feel you belong.

What to wear:

Attire for Round 2 is casual. A casual sun dress, skirt or pants outfit is appropriate for this night.

Round 3: Preference Night

7:30 PM	Potential New Members Report to FSU
7:45 PM	Recruitment Counselor Meeting with Potential New Members
8:00-10:15 PM	Events
10:15-11:15 PM	Potential New Members Meet with Recruitment Counselors and Sign Preference Cards

What it's all about:

During this time, you should really listen to what the sorority women convey. The members will talk to you about the more serious aspects of their sorority. It is important to make your final decision based on your own thoughts and feelings.

What to Wear:

Attire for Round 3 is dressy. A Sunday dress is appropriate.

Bid Day

3:00 PM	Potential New Members Receive Bids in Chapel
3:30 PM	Running of the Halls (optional)

What it's all about:

Bids will be distributed and you will have the opportunity to accept an invitation of membership to a sorority. After you receive your bids, all of the girls will run the halls and the sororities will find out who their new sisters will be.. Each sorority holds a bid day party in the evening following running of the halls to welcome new members!

What to Wear:

Attire is casual. During running of the halls, you will receive your bid day shirt from your sorority.

Each Potential New Member will be assigned to a group. Each group will be led by two recruitment counselors, a Gamma Chi and a Panhellenic Officer. The two recruitment counselors will lead each group to their different events, and they will also serve as a mentor during the week of sorority recruitment.*

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST ATTEND EACH NIGHT'S EVENT TO PARTICIPATE IN RECRUITMENT (With the exception of an approved excused absence from the Office of Student Life)
