Assistant Professor of History Education

The School of Education at Shorter University invites application for a 10-month, tenure-track Secondary History Education position. The successful candidate must work collegially with other faculty, and embrace the mission and vision of Shorter University and the School of Education.

Required qualifications include an earned doctorate, Curriculum & Instruction or Secondary/History Education, a minimum of 18 graduate hours in a related content area, and three years of successful public high school teaching.

NCATE (CAEP), NCSS and edTPA experience preferred.

Responsibilities may include: teaching education and history undergraduate and online graduate courses; supervising student teachers and interns; advising; serving on committees; engaging in scholarly research/professional development; developing/participating in school partnerships; participating in university and community service; and other duties and responsibilities as assigned by the chair or dean.

Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until a qualified candidate has been selected. Position available January 1 or August 1, 2016.

In addition to the required online application, send letter of application, unofficial transcripts of all academic work and three current letters of reference to

Human Resources
Shorter University
315 Shorter Avenue
Rome, Georgia 30165

Or email hrjobs@shorter.edu (Name the title of the position in the Subject line.)

Apply today at the following link: https://home.eease.adp.com/recruit/?id=14788831

Shorter University is a Christ centered University affiliated with the Georgia Baptist Convention and requires employees to be committed Christians.

Transforming Lives Through Christ