Graduate Assistant Women's Lacrosse

Shorter University, in transition to NCAA Division II, seeks qualified applicants for a graduate assistant coach. The primary responsibility will be to assist the head coach in all facets of the program including but not limited to the following: recruiting academically and athletically qualified student-athletes, organization and planning of practices, game preparation, administrative duties, monitoring academics, strength and conditioning, and other tasks as assigned by the head coach.

Applicants should be interested in receiving a post-graduate degree. Each position is a two-year commitment. Requirements include prior collegiate playing and/or coaching experience; proof of graduation from an accredited institution of higher learning with a relevant degree; acceptance into the graduate program of Shorter University; and ability to relocate and begin no later than August 1, 2013. Successful candidates must be able to follow the requirements of NCAA Division II and the mission of Shorter University.
